

Date: July 7, 2008
Contact: Jean Quartarone
Title: Marketing
732-747-6995

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE-

Information Technology Seminar

Tinton Falls, NJ--- July 7, 2008: Storage Engine Inc. announced today that it is hosting an executive technology lunch along with CommVault on Thursday August 7, 2008 in Jersey City, NJ. This Seminar will detail the 2008 innovations in SAN and Backup Technology for 2008. Including vastly improved backup and restore reliability, reduced costs with greener technology and easier implement encryption and data discovery functionality.

Contact Storage Engine for more information or to register.

About Storage Engine:

Storage Engine, Inc., is a leading responsible provider of data storage solutions and document imaging solutions for enterprises and departments that serve a wide range of business and government markets along with a wide range of other services to enable the capture, tracking, storing, sharing, replication and utilization of information assets, with compliance, cost effectively.

Storage Engine competes against large corporations including EMC (NYSE-EMC), Network Appliance (NASDAQ-NTAP), Sun Microsystems (NASDAQ-JAVA) and Hewlett Packard (NYSE-HP), among others.

For more information, visit www.storageengine.com, or call 1-866-734-8899.

###